PURE PAINT..

B. P. S. Paint is made of pure carbonate of lead; oxide of zinc (to aid whiteness and durability); Old Process linseed oil, aged, settled and ripened in The Patterson-Sargent Company's own tanks (new oil is not fit to use); and the necessary driers and coloring matter.

B. P. S. PAINT IS PURE. Using adulterated paint is wasting money. The so called "cheap" or adulterated paint, works improperly under the brush, delaying the painter—neither spreads nor covers as well as good paint, thus requiring a larger number of gallons,—and will not protect your buildings nearly as long, thus requiring repainting. The markets are full of adulterated leads and oils and adulterated driers and coloring materials, any one of which injure the life and economy of paint.

Your Dealer, with his "just as good" machine mixed paint, may be honest.
Your Painter, with his hand mixed lead and oil, may be honest.
But neither has facilities for testing and analyzing raw materials to protect himself against fraudulent goods.

Use B. P. S. Paint and take no chances. Owing to the purity of materials used, perfect formula, and absolute accuracy and thoroughness of mixing and grinding, B. P. S. Paint gives the best possible results in easy working qualities, covering and spreading capacity, fine finish and durability.

Ask for B. P. S. Sealed evidence (paint costs, color card and plates of colored houses.)—FREE.

TOOK CARBOLIC ACID.

Mrs. Henry J. Zimmerman, better known in Yale as Mabel Teetzel, having lived her girlhood days here, was brought a corpse from her home in Detroit on Wednesday night to be buried in Elmwood cemetery. Circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs.
Zimmerman are sad indeed, facts showing that her married life had been so unhappy that the wish to end it all had become paramount and her wretchedness caused her to take carbolic acid on Monday of this week which in a few hours freed her from all her earthly troubles.

Mabel was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Teetzel, the former dying some years ago, the latter yet living.
Mrs. Charles Tunis, of Yale, was a sister. Mabel was a bright, pretty girl, industrious and highly thought of while living in Yale, and her untimely death, at the age of 32 years is much deplored. She has been married to Henry Zimmerman for about seven years and their home has been in Port Huron and Detroit. She leaves one child, a five year old boy. The funeral services were held at the home of Chas.
Tunis at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

GLEANER ROUNDUP.

The Gleaner roundup held in Central hall, Yale, last Friday evening, March 9th, was a rousing success.
Following are the Arbors which were represented:—Friendship, Star, Ivy, Brockway, Fargo, Avoca, East Greenwood and Red Cross. The evening was beautiful and at about seven o'clock the members began to swarm into the hall. It looked at one time as though all the Gleaners in St. Clair county had gathered to capture Yale by force.
By nine o'clock all had found their way into the hall and settled down to quietness.

The meeting was soon afterwards called to order by the Chief Gleaner of Friendship Arbor who gave way to the Brockway lady degree team which executed the second degree and floor work. About fifty candidates were lined up and converted into full-fledged Gleaners. The ritualistic work was all memorized and was carried out with such accuracy that a single mistake was not noticeable. After the initiation ceremony was completed the door was thrown open to invited guests to witness the lady degree team go through their drill which was carried out very gracefully. When the ladies finished their drill, Companion Hammon, of Capac, introduced Companion J. Hudson, of Caro, who gave an interesting talk on Gleanerism. He discussed freely his views of fraternity in the true sense of the word, or brotherly kindness as we might term it, illustrating to each and every one the good derived from fraternal organization, pointing out to us the deep thought, "Am I my brother's keeper?" and by so doing fulfilling the law of God. In this way we are binding ourselves more closely and with a definite aim in view, to relieve the destitute and provide for the widow and orphan. He also pointed out the great benefit of protection where a widow is left with a large family and a mortgage on the farm. Were it not for such protection many a poor widow would be left in destitute circumstances. In all, his talk was listened to with interest by every one present.

The meeting was closed by singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," after which refreshments were passed around and it seemed that all took their parts equally well. After all their appetites were satisfied they left for their homes feeling it was good to be a Gleaner.

Companion Hammon, of Capac, deserves great credit for the noble work he has done in bringing into our order such an army of Gleaners which could not be done but for the assistance he rendered.

In conclusion I would say to all those who intend to join a fraternal organization, join one such as the Gleaners, where man, wife, son and daughter can take seats side by side in the lodge room which is not the privilege in many societies.

MRS. ASHTON W. SMITH,
Lecturer.

OBITUARY.

He still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.— Shakespeare.

We are sorry to chronicle this week the sudden death of John Penrice, of Fremont township.

During his thirteen years residence in Michigan he made a great many fast friends. His genial nature and ready jokes made him a looked for friend by the friends in the vicinities in which he resided. In the home his cheery voice conveyed with it much sunshine and made the home environments very enjoyable for his wife and child. But this happiness was blighted by a passing angel who spread the canopy of death over the home. The cause of death was myocarditis and nephritis.

During the day of Wednesday, Mar.
7th, the pain gradually ceased and at 2 o'clock p. m. he fell asleep in the arms of Jesus, and the soul returned to its God.

The deceased leaves a wife and one son, aged ten years. During the time of the sickness and after the death, the neighbors and friends showed the utmost kindness in the bereaved home.

After a short service at the house the body was taken to Park Hill, Ontario, where it was laid in its last resting place March 9th.

The sorrowing family and relatives have the fullest sympathy of his acquaintances.

Mr. Penrice lived in Yale for a short time, moving to Fremont township last spring, and while here made many friends, all of whom will regret to learn of his demise.

Thomas Guiliat died at his home in Greenwood township on Tuesday, Mar.
13, 1906, at the age of 80 years. The funeral will be held from the Menniste church Sunday at 11 o'clock and the interment made in the Moore cemetery, Brockway township.

Mr. Guiliat was born May 5th, 1826, in Elsternwick, Yorkshire, Eng. Came to this country and settled at Toronto, Ont., in 1851. One year later he moved to Michigan. July 3, 1860, he married Orilla Heath, and fourteen children were born to the union, one having died. Those of the children in life are:
—William, Mrs. Anson Somers, Mrs. Fred F. Secord and Mrs. Robert Heron, of Yale; Thomas, of Roseburg; James, of West Superior, Wis.; Enos and Joseph, of Iwiling, Mich.; Lyman, Charles, Mrs. Samuel Middleton and Sherman at home. A widow and the above children are left to mourn the death of a kind husband and indulgent father.

ATHENEUM SOCIETY.

The members of the Athenaeum Society gave the following program in the High Room last Friday evening:— Three minute talks:—
Prospects for athletics at the Y. H. S.
—Clare Fuller.
The value of reading good books.—
Maudie Dickie.

DEBATE—Resolved, That the U. S. should build and maintain a larger navy.—Affirmative, Eleanor Biddeman and Roy Bricker. Negative, Rensley Holden and Belle Porterfield. The judges decided unanimously in favor of the affirmative.

Current Event—The German Reelprocity Treaty.—Vera Wallace.
Owing to the sickness of some members of the choir, no music was rendered. An excellent program is being prepared for next Friday evening, March 23.
